Factual Allegations

(9) On or about the early morning of April 17, 2002 Plaintiff was sleeping in the back seat of a friend's automobile parked on Shipman Street in Hilo, Hawai'i.

(10) At or about 3:00 a.m. Plaintiff was awakened when his friend, Justin Aoki, opened the back door of the vehicle, warned him that the police were coming, and then fled.

(11) Plaintiff, who was on parole at the time in an unrelated case, became afraid that he might be arrested and jumped into the front seat of the vehicle intending to flee the scene.

(12) As Plaintiff got into the front seat of the vehicle, Defendant Botelho approached the vehicle and stood on the sidewalk in front of the vehicle.

(13) As Plaintiff was looking to the rear and reversing the car away from Defendant Botelho in an attempt to flee, Defendant Botelho, without any warning or provocation, drew his gun and fired it at Plaintiff striking Plaintiff in the neck.

(14) On the morning of April 17, 2002, while in police custody, the police took a statement from Justin Aoki who reported that Defendant Botelho shot Plaintiff as he was coming to a stop from reversing away from Defendant Botelho.

(15) On April 20, 2002, without informing Plaintiff that he was a suspect in a criminal investigation of any kind arising from the April 17, 2002 shooting, and without legal representation, the police took a video taped statement from Plaintiff who reported that he was shot after reversing the vehicle away from a police officer at the scene, and that he was not trying to run over any officer.

(16) On April 26, 2002 while Plaintiff was receiving continuing medical care for his injuries, the police, without informing Plaintiff that he was a suspect in a criminal investigation and without legal representation, took photos of Plaintiff's injuries and obtained the bullet which was removed from Plaintiff.

(17) No criminal charges were ever filed against Plaintiff over the next 12 months, and on May 5, 2003 Plaintiff filed the instant civil rights action against Defendant Botelho and the County of Hawai'i.

(18) On or about November 12, 2003, Defendants Botelho and the County of Hawai'i requested answers to interrogatories from Plaintiff in the instant civil rights action, inter alia, which Defendant answered on or about January 26, 2004 stating, inter alia, that he was shot as he was looking over his right shoulder as he was reversing away from Defendant Botelho.

(19) Defendants Botelho and the County of Hawai'i sought summary judgment in their favor in the instant civil rights action which was denied by Judge Ezra on August 5, 2004.

(20) Immediately thereafter the trial of the instant civil rights case was set for March 1, 2005 and thereafter the District Court rescheduled the trial to June 28, 2005.

(21) On March 24, 2005 Defendant Kimura intentionally, deliberately, and flagrantly misled the state grand jury to obtain an indictment against Plaintiff in Criminal No. 05-1-0080 for terroristic threatening arising from the April 17, 2002 shooting incident although there is not and never was any evidence to support such indictment.

(22) On or about June 2, 2006, after a full evidentiary trial, a jury acquitted Plaintiff of the charges in Criminal No. 05-1-0080.

(23) No appeal of the Judgment of Acquittal in Criminal No. 05-1-0080 has been filed by Defendant Kimura and the time period for filing such appeal has expired.

(30) Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that there is not and never was any legal or factual

(32) Defendant Kimura initiated and/or maintained the aforementioned criminal action against Plaintiff to accomplish a purpose other than securing the proper adjudication of the charges on the merits.

(33) Defendant Kimura initiated and/or maintained the aforementioned criminal actions against Plaintiff maliciously and without legal or just cause.

(34) The Defendant Kimura acted herein outside and beyond the scope of the authority of his office.

(35) As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing Plaintiff already has suffered and will continue to suffer serious and lasting harm to his security and well-being.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays for relief as follows:

(1) For general damages according to the proof thereof at trial;

(2) For special damages according to the proof thereof at trial;

(3) For punitive damages against Defendants Botelho, Kimura and certain Doe Defendants;

(4) For reimbursement of his costs and expenses herein, including reasonable provision for his attorneys' fees; and
